

Evaluation Sheet

1. Which of the topics and exercises explored in this workshop were most useful?

Name of exercise or topic: map

How can you use this in your classroom?

fantastic for all levels - I have a broad range of abilities

Name of exercise or topic:

News story

How can you use this in your classroom?

encourage students to develop

Name of exercise or topic:

Character development

How can you use this in your classroom?

great to help develop and complete a story

2. Please comment on the presenter and workshop presentation good

3. In what way/s could this workshop be improved?

4. Additional comments It flowed and was easy to understand and relative to students of mixed abilities

Thank you for your feedback.

Evaluation Sheet

1. Which of the topics and exercises explored in this workshop were most useful?

Name of exercise or topic:

Creative Writing Workshop - mapping/fantasy land

How can you use this in your classroom?

Getting students start writing/getting ideas without realising it -

Name of exercise or topic:

Setting the scene/Narrative voice

How can you use this in your classroom?

Building up ideas for students and myself.

Name of exercise or topic:

Presentation

How can you use this in your classroom?

A good way of getting students involved

2. Please comment on the presenter and workshop presentation

Presenter made writing seem fun using breaking down the various topics.
Workshop - great

3. In what way/s could this workshop be improved? For me personally

- I would have like to have had longer period of time

4. Additional comments

Thank you for your feedback.

Evaluation Sheet

1. Which of the topics and exercises explored in this workshop were most useful?

Name of exercise or topic:

Overall Discussion

How can you use this in your classroom?

It was very helpful to see a different way of teaching

Creative writing. This is a lot more fluid than the oft taught analytical model - and seems more applicable to the primary classroom.

Name of exercise or topic:

Story Map

How can you use this in your classroom?

A fun and creative way of getting the kids thinking about setting - and then I loved the idea of a Lead News Story.

Name of exercise or topic:

Character and Voice

How can you use this in your classroom?

The idea of looking at one "story" (newspaper piece) and thinking about the different perspectives often kids lock themselves in and this frees them.

2. Please comment on the presenter and workshop presentation

Really open and friendly. Extremely encouraging.

Allowed us AS TEACHERS to experience the same creative opportunities as the kids.

3. In what way/s could this workshop be improved?

LONGER (but preferably not at the end of a full days teaching).

4. Additional comments

Thank you Bernard for the opportunity to write! ☺

Thank you for your feedback.

Evaluation Sheet

1. Which of the topics and exercises explored in this workshop were most useful?

Name of exercise or topic:

I liked the collaborative exercises + building up 4 characters, their relationship + POV.

How can you use this in your classroom?

Creative Writing sessions - based on novel reading. History - understand + empathise.

Name of exercise or topic:

Creating Map / Visualising

How can you use this in your classroom?

Setting + getting detail for imaginary journeys - also could be used in response to what students are reading.

Name of exercise or topic:

_____

How can you use this in your classroom?

_____

_____

2. Please comment on the presenter and workshop presentation Dynamic,

engaging + to the point.

_____

3. In what way/s could this workshop be improved? I like examples of good writing to be included + I realise that the postcards did this.

4. Additional comments _____

_____

_____

Thank you for your feedback.

TheWritingWorkshop

www.writingworkshop.com.au

Evaluation Sheet

1. Which of the topics and exercises explored in this workshop were most useful?

Name of exercise or topic:

Creative writing map.

How can you use this in your classroom?

I can see the purpose of using a map to invite reluctant writers, and then to write jointly for the stage I'm involved in with a movement toward independent attempts.

Name of exercise or topic:

EVENT -

How can you use this in your classroom?

I like the idea of using a hard news format to build the atmosphere. (the inverted ~~triangle~~ pyramid model).

Name of exercise or topic:

_____

How can you use this in your classroom?

_____

_____

2. Please comment on the presenter and workshop presentation

Very well presented, most informative & interesting.

_____

3. In what way/s could this workshop be improved?

More time to explore the topic would be great. 1½ hrs went too quickly.

4. Additional comments

Thank you to Moree Christian School for providing this professional learning

Thank you for your feedback.

Evaluation Sheet

1. Which of the topics and exercises explored in this workshop were most useful?

Name of exercise or topic:

The character lunch box story-event

How can you use this in your classroom?

This coincides with my students' love of story telling.

Name of exercise or topic:

The map.

How can you use this in your classroom?

This allows creativity and caters for all individual's needs and abilities

Name of exercise or topic:

Character - personality.

How can you use this in your classroom?

This could be used as an emotional scale - self evaluation exercise.

2. Please comment on the presenter and workshop presentation The presenter was very engaging and had well designed activities

3. In what way/s could this workshop be improved? This workshop would be great if it was offered during the day and not after work.

4. Additional comments Thank you very much for a very entertaining workshop.

Thank you for your feedback.

Evaluation Sheet

1. Which of the topics and exercises explored in this workshop were most useful?

Name of exercise or topic:

Setting establishment through mapping.

How can you use this in your classroom?

Shared Story telling, with teacher + students creating a story.

Name of exercise or topic:

Observation of 7/3/4 Class Science Creative Writing on gravity

How can you use this in your classroom?

Fits in well with our current study of other planets → various gravities.

Name of exercise or topic:

Newspaper Report of Event

How can you use this in your classroom?

Great for brainstorming activity once shared land has been established.

2. Please comment on the presenter and workshop presentation _____

Very good; down to Earth approach that allows us to unleash our imagination in a shared experience with children.

3. In what way/s could this workshop be improved? _____

Longer ???

4. Additional comments _____

Thank you for your feedback.

Evaluation Sheet

1. Which of the topics and exercises explored in this workshop were most useful?

Name of exercise or topic:

Observation of 4 authors teaching K-3, observe Bernard teaching year 3/4
Teacher professional development

How can you use this in your classroom?

Great practical ideas - how to teach, observing the teachers approach was helpful.

Name of exercise or topic:

Observation of Bernard teaching Year 3/4

How can you use this in your classroom?

Excellent 'scaffolding' ideas.

Name of exercise or topic:

Teacher professional development

How can you use this in your classroom?

Absolutely loved the fresh ways to teach Narrative -

2. Please comment on the presenter and workshop presentation

Great!

3. In what way/s could this workshop be improved? Knowing what equipment (pencils/paper or no) students needed for each session.

4. Additional comments Thanks so much for the energy + time.

Thank you for your feedback.

Evaluation Sheet

1. Which of the topics and exercises explored in this workshop were most useful?

Name of exercise or topic:

Creative Writing

How can you use this in your classroom?

Map – a great unwritten way of encouraging a student to write – certainly a success for the classroom

Name of exercise or topic:

Inverted pyramid

How can you use this in your classroom?

a great way to get children to think right through to the end of a story.

Name of exercise or topic:

Characters as an individual entity

How can you use this in your classroom?

A way to direct children and encourage them to delve into their characters.

2. Please comment on the presenter and workshop presentation

Fascinating, stimulating storylines, logical sequence.

3. In what way/s could this workshop be improved?

Adequate.

4. Additional comments

Thank you for your feedback.

Evaluation Sheet

1. Which of the topics and exercises explored in this workshop were most useful?

Name of exercise or topic:

Map of Setting

How can you use this in your classroom?

Good use of graphic media to reduce writer's trauma in students.

Name of exercise or topic:

Personality characteristic scales

How can you use this in your classroom?

Useful for helping students describe character behaviour.

Name of exercise or topic:

_____

How can you use this in your classroom?

_____

_____

2. Please comment on the presenter and workshop presentation

The ongoing theme of development of a written piece helped to each part of the workshop

3. In what way/s could this workshop be improved?

_____

_____

_____

4. Additional comments

Excellent catering. Thank you for being comfortable with participants eating and writing/presenting at the same time

Thank you for your feedback.

Evaluation Sheet

1. Which of the topics and exercises explored in this workshop were most useful?

Name of exercise or topic:

creating the map as the setting for the story

How can you use this in your classroom?

This is great for visual learners as a scaffold

Name of exercise or topic:

Others exercises that support the time map

How can you use this in your classroom?

Name of exercise or topic:

How can you use this in your classroom?

2. Please comment on the presenter and workshop presentation I found the workshop extremely informative and well presented

3. In what way/s could this workshop be improved? Given the amount of information the workshop could easily be extended. Perhaps handouts with a short explanation of the task

4. Additional comments

Thank you for your feedback.

